

North Atlantic Conference Women's Tennis/Cross Country Report – Sept. 12, 2005

Robb Modica, Sports Communication Coordinator
rmodica@nacathletics.com • www.nacathletics.com

2005 Women's Tennis

	Conference Only					Overall
	W	L	Pct	GW	GL	W	L	Pct	GW	GL
Castleton St.	1	0	1.000	6	3	1	1	.500	10	8
Becker	0	0	.000	0	0	1	1	.500	10	8
Bay Path	0	0	.000	0	0	1	2	.333	5	22
Johnson St.	0	1	.000	3	6	0	2	.000	6	12

NAC WOMEN'S TENNIS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Danielle Royce, Johnson St. (Sr. - Morrisville, VT)
 Playing in the #4 spot, Royce beat her Castleton State opponent 6-2, 6-1 to make her 2-0 in singles play this season.

NAC WOMEN'S TENNIS ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Marissa Spooner, Becker (Fr. - Westport, MA)
 Spooner went 3-0 last week for Becker. She led the Lady Hawks with a singles (6-2, 6-0) and doubles win (w/ Julie Arroyo, 8-3) in a 9-0 win over MCLA and she had the only win (6-3, 6-1) in a season opening loss to Nichols.

NAC MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE WEEK

Chris Gatchell, Castleton St. (Fr.-Waterford, ME)
 Gatchell won his only meet of the week, taking the Castleton State Invitational (8K) in a time of 28:44. The next closest competitor to Gatchell finished in a time of 29:06.

NAC MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Jeffrey Campbell, Johnson St. (Fr. - Hinesburg, VT)
 Campbell placed 7th overall at Castleton State Invitational in his first collegiate race to help Johnson State to finish 2nd place team finish.

NAC WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER OF THE WEEK

Andra Spearrin, Me.-Farmington (Jr. - Skowhegan, ME)
 Spearrin finished 5th fifth overall in the UNE Cross Country Invitational Meet on September 10th. Spearrin, a junior from the University of Maine at Farmington, completed the course in a time of 20:45 placing her 5th, behind four women from Bowdoin, in a field 64.

NAC WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Allison Robinson, Johnson St. (Fr. - Bethlehem, NH)
 Robinson finished 2nd in her first ever collegiate race at the Castleton State Invitational.