NAC MEN'S SOCCER ALL-CONFERENCE TEAMS ANNOUNCED

Johnson State senior forward Mike Greico was selected as the North Atlantic Conference Player of the Year in a vote by the league's coaches. During conference play, Greico, a three-time all-league selection, led the conference in scoring with ten goals and two assists.

First year forward Alec Brown of the University of Maine-Farmington was chosen as the NAC Rookie of the Year. Brown, who was also honored on the all-conference first team, led all rookies with six goals during conference play accounting for forty percent of the Beavers offense.

Maine-Farmington's Jamie Beaudoin and Lasell's Giovanni Pacini shared NAC Coach of the Year accolades. Beaudoin, in his fifth season at the helm of the Beaver program, orchestrated a three game improvement in conference play improving to 5-3-2 and earning the third seed in the NAC tournament. Pacini led his squad to a perfect 10-0 mark in league contests and will host the NAC championship Saturday.

Castleton State College was honored with the Team Sportsmanship Award. This was the second consecutive season the squad was honored with this distinction. NAC all-conference selections are determined by a vote of the conference coaches. Additional players honored are due to ties in the voting.
