

Castleton State College

Spring Leadership Kickoff Event

- WHEN? Saturday, February 2, 2008
9 a.m. - 1 p.m.
- WHAT? This is the kick-off event for a series of leadership development opportunities to be offered throughout the Spring semester. There will be a keynote speaker, Ed Cabellon, and interactive activities designed to help student leaders get re-energized and re-committed. Breakfast and lunch are included.
- WHO? Open to all Castleton student leaders including, but not limited to: club officers, team captains, Community Advisors, Student Association members, honor society officers, Student Orientation Staff, and students who want to get involved in a leadership role at Castleton.
- WHY? You should attend if you are a new, experienced or aspiring student leader who strives to improve your effectiveness in your leadership role.
- COST? Free!
- HOW? Pick up a registration form in the Student Life Office or print one at <http://www.castleton.edu/campus/leadership/leadershipindex.htm>, complete, and return it to the Student Life Office in the Campus Center by Friday, January 25.
- DEADLINE? Sign up by Friday, January 25.
- For more information, contact:
Victoria Angis
Assistant Dean for Campus Life
Student Life Office, Campus Center
802-468-1231
victoria.angis@castleton.edu